LOCAL NEWS.

Mr. Jonathan Shaw moved into his new house on School street yesterday.

The British man-of-war Constance is not coming here but will go to Chili and from there to England.

On account of the Children's meeting in Fort-St. Church, the usual gospel services at Y. M. C. A. Hall to-morrow evening will be omitted.

The Royal Hawaiian Band will not play at Emma Square this afternoon as the boys will be engaged at wind blowing aboard the Italian man-of-war.

There will be services at the Bethel Union Church to-morrow, with preaching by Rev. E. C. Oggel, pastor, at 11 A. M., and 7:30 P. M. Sunday school at 9:45 A. M.

The soda-water business costs something in Honolulu after all. Yesterday Hollister and Company delivered twenty thousand bottle corks which cost $120.

Young men and strangers are especially invited to the Young Men's Bible Class in Y. M. C. A. parlor to-morrow morning at 9:45. The class will be conducted by the General Secretary.

It is estimated that the amount of steam it takes to blow Jackey Lucas' steam whistle at noon each day, would be sufficient to dry a centrifugal of sugar. Jackey, you are paying too dear for your whistle.

Mr. Fuller, General Secretary of the Y. M. C. A., conducted the Young People's prayer meeting at the Bethel Church last evening. There was a large attendance and the services were exceedingly interesting.

A breakfast party will be given by His Majesty this morning at the Palace at half-past eight o'clock to the captain and officers of the Italian man-of-war. Lunch will be given aboard the ship to the King in the afternoon.

Major Dane will address the Grand Union Children's meeting held under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. in Fort St. Church to-morrow at 3 P. M. Subject: "Temple Builders." All English speaking children and adults are invited.

Mr. David Moehonua, one of the Oceanic Base Ball Club, will leave on the next Mariposa for San Francisco. He goes at the direction of the King and will probably fill some position at San Francisco connected with this Government.

Mr. Cruzan will address the Sunday school on "Temperance" Sunday morning. Public worship at 11 A. M. Sunday evening lecture to young men, subject: "Is He a Gentleman?" All are invited; special welcome to strangers and young men.

Mr. J. H. Wicke who resides at No. 33 Alakea street is engaged in tearing down his old house to make room for a new two-story building which will be erected immediately. The new building will be under the direction of Mr. Fred. D. Wicke.

On Thursday evening next the monthly society of the Bethel Union Church will be held at the residence of the pastor, E. C. Oggel, on Nuanu Avenue. A fine literary and musical programme will be presented and refreshments served. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

The beautiful design of a native girl covered with leis and holding a kahili, with a background of Waikiki, on the banner, belongs to Honolulu Commandery, No. 1, Knights Templar, and was copied in Cincinnati from a large painting done in water color for the purpose by Mrs. J. D. Strong of Honolulu.

To-morrow at three o'clock the Married Men will play a match game of base ball with the new native club, known as the Hawaii Base Ball Club. The game will be played at the Makiki diamond. Moehonua of the Oceanics will pitch for the new club. It is rumored that he throws a wicked curve.

Major Dane and a party of friends will start for Honolulu this morning; they will lunch at Mr. Campbell's ranch and will return in the cool of the evening. Major Dane has lately investigated the sanitary condition of Honolulu and it is no wonder that he takes the first opportunity to get a breath of fresh country air.

It was reported last night on the street that the reason the lecture by Major Dane for the benefit of the W. C. T. U. and G. W. De Long Post, G. A. R. will not take place in Fort-St. Church, is owing to the fact that the Trustees of the church object to holding any entertainment therein for which tickets are to be sold.

Yesterday a Chinaman living at Waikiki came into town and reported that sneak thieves had visited his "hen loost" and had enticed nine giddy hens and two gay "loosters" to depart without leave of absence. The Chinaman says he intends to buy 'um dog and study Confucius by moon-light hereafter, instead of snoring base to the mid-night mosquito's plaintive baritone.

On Monday evening next, September 28th at half past seven Major Dane will give a joint benefit to Geo. W. De Long Post No. 45 G. A. R. and the Woman's Christian Temperance Union. The lecture will be at the Y. M. C. A. Hall. By mistake the tickets were gotten out with the statement that it would be at Fort Street Church. It is hoped that holders of tickets will take note of this correction.

They say: that there is nothing in the rumor that the King will ask Minister Gibson to resign when Paul Neumann returns; that the skating rink rivalry is a wheel within a wheel; that the police are on the track of the sneak thieves; that Jimmie Talbot rolls well; that the dog who's who, doesn't even know his own master; that the restaurants buy cheap meat; that these rumors would be continued if—

Member Riddell, of the Post Obit Club will leave these tropic shores for the stern coast of Australia by the next steamer down. Member Cathcart is already in tears at the threatened loss and Member O'Mahoney refuses to be comforted. Member Barber alone remains gay and unaffected—he remembers how once upon a time the longitude of member Riddell out-lengthed him in a swimming bout.

Yesterday morning about ten o'clock a Chinese Chinaman left his horse standing on Fort street near King street. The horse tried the old runaway dodge but the fleet footed Chinaman straightened his queue on the morning zephyr and succeeded in overhauling his equine "nibs" before any damage was done. "Him heap too fly, all same," said the Chinaman as he glanced nervously up the street to see if a policeman was in sight, "all light, him all asleep," said the Celestial as he drove off.

The action of the Government in shutting off the water of delinquent customers has worked well. The delinquents immediately formed in line at the office and ever since have been paying up so they could get a drink. As soon as a bill was paid the water was turned on again. Up to last Tuesday over $4,000 of the delinquent list had been paid and it is understood that the amount paid now approximates $7,000. This analogy explodes the old theory that the people of the Western United States can live on whisky.

Yesterday morning a Chinaman was leading a young pigling along Maunakea street to a Chinese butcher shop. When the pig reached the sidewalk in front of the shop he cast his eye upwards and beheld four of his unfortunate brethren hanging upon pegs in their new retail dress suits. A tear came into his eye as he beheld their sad plight and he immediately "squealed" and refused to go further. A dozen Chinamen surrounded the fat porker and he was soon hustled through the door and over the counter. The Chinese returned smacking their lips. Moral: Do not lick the hand that feeds you if it makes you fat.

The following is the official list of the officers and midshipmen of H. B. M. Satellite which arrived in port yesterday morning at 10 o'clock: Captain, Arthur H. Allington; Lieutenants, Francis G. Jones, Francis C. M. Noel, William J. V. Hudson; Nav. Lieutenant, Henry Seville; Staff Surgeon, John Lyon, M. D.; Paymaster, Charles Toppling; Chief Engineer, John Swanson; Sub-Lieutenant, John E. Lea; Gunner, George W. Spry; Boat-swain, Richard Cumner; Carpenter, John E. S. Brown; Chaplain, Rev. Mason; Midshipmen, Charles M. Masters, Frederick D. Gilpin Brown; Bertram M. Chambers; Clerk, Graham Hewlett.

There is no immediate fear of the public running out of cheap reading matter from the looks of things in the book stores. Mr. T. G. Thurm has just received a full edition of all the pocket Seaside Libraries and Messrs. J. M. Oat, Jr. & Co. have received a large supply of the various libraries including all that are published of the Seaside pocket editions; Lovell's edition; Munro's Series; Harper's Handy Series; Round Robin Series; Knickerbocker edition; Trans-Atlantic Novels; Riverside Aldine Series; Harper's Franklin Square edition, etc., besides cloth bound copies of all the popular poets and standard English classic novels.

The schooner Haleakala arrived in port last night and brought down the Government buoy that is anchored off the plantation of Mr. C. Afong, at Pepeekeo, to be repaired. The buoy will be replaced by a buoy loaned by Mr. Frank Cooke. The chain which held the old buoy was originally a two-inch chain, but had been eaten away to about three-fourths of an inch when taken up. Minister Gulick has ordered a new chain to replace the old one. The prompt action of both Minister Gulick and Mr. Afong in having this buoy repaired is to be commended as the surf at this point is bad in rough weather and without a surface signal of some kind it would be very dangerous.

Night before last Mr. John Spencer gave a luau at his residence on King street, in front of Rawling's Soap factory. Most of the guests were natives and half-whites. About eleven o'clock from some unaccountable cause, the crowd reached a high-pressure state of hilarity which ended in a free fight in the front yard. The merry bacchanals amused themselves when they were not fighting by throwing roast pig and bowls of succulent poi at the residents across the street. An old native man who had occasion to pass along the sidewalk was duly baptized with a calabash of poi. When patience ceased to see the phantasmagoria of fun that revelled in the brains of these loud luauers, somebody in the vicinity telephoned for the police, who came out and took a seat on their "funny business."

The Yosemite Rink.

The grand masquerade and ball took place at the Yosemite Rink last night. By eight o'clock the hall was filled with a large and fashionable crowd of people. The boys loudly cheered noted citizens as they came in and took their seats. At five minutes past eight o'clock the grand march opened. In the lead were two little people in the costumes of Shepherd and Shepherdess. A good many of the costumes were old, having been used in former carnivals, but taken as a whole the display was most creditable and satisfactory. The harlequines and the clown were all quite funny. At nine o'clock the prizes were awarded as follows: Most handsome costume, "Maid of Erin," most original character, "Music," best sustained character, "Nurse Girl." After the announcement of the prizes, skating was resumed for a short time, when the May pole was put up to an accompaniment whistled by the small boys. The dance was performed by about twenty of the masquerades and although it was rather long, was well done. After the May pole dance came the old fashioned kind with a hug and a whirl, after dancing soda and a night-long snooze.

Police Court Items.

Wm. Wall paid $6 for getting drunk.
Wilehu was fined $6.20 for being drunk and trying to get into a house on Hotel street.
Jos. Pilipo was fined $8.30 for an assault and battery.
Kahaeoa was fined $8 on the same charge.
Liu Kahlbaum was fined $6 for violating Hack rule No. 6.
Rudolph Myer, for driving faster than a walk over Waikiki bridge was fined $6.

PORTRAITS.
